Report of the directors (incorporating the trustees' report) for the year ended 30 April 2013

The directors present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 30 April 2013. The directors, who are also trustees of Development Coll for the purposes of charity law and who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out on page 1.

Structure, governance and management

Organisation and management

The charity is controlled by the board of directors. The main focus of the charity's activities is the running of the new community centre and bunkhouse, and day to day management of these facilities is carried out by three members of staff - George McConnachie (Business Development Manager), Frances Macintyre (Operations Manager, including finance) and Jane Metcalfe (Operations Manager). These roles have been effective since January 2013 and work closely with the An Cridhe Management Committee - a sub-committee of DC. Other projects are managed by various working groups and individuals acting in a voluntary capacity. The board of directors oversees all these activities.

Over the course of the year 2012-2013, the following changes to directors took place:

Romayne Wainwright resigned as Company Secretary and as a director

Di McDonnell, Peter Wilson, Kip Poulson, Paula Jamieson, Colin Scott and John Wheeler James all resigned as directors.

Jean Peddie, Jen Byram, Louis Romeo and Nic Smith were all elected as directors.

Juliette Summers was co-opted as a director.

Business Development Officer

The Enterprise Growth Fund provided a source of funding for a full time Business Development Officer (details below).

An Cridhe management staff

From May 2012- January 2013, two members of staff were appointed to manage the new community centre (An Cridhe). Marianne Ings and Frances Macintyre took on the roles of Centre Manager and Book Keeper respectively. Marianne Ings resigned in July 2012.

From January 2013, following a full review of staffing and the business plan, three new roles were created, with additional funding from the Big Lottery. George McConnachie was appointed as Business Manager, Frances Macintyre was made Operations Manager with responsibility for finance; and Jane Metcalfe was appointed as Operations Manager. ( 20 hours respectively)

Consultants:

Emma Grant is employed by DC to provide ongoing monitoring and evaluation reports for submission to funders including Big Lottery, ERDF, Community Energy Scotland and Scottish Power Renewables until May 2015.

Objectives and activities

The charity was formed:

- * to manage community land and assets as part of the protection and sustainable development of the natural environment
- * to promote rural regeneration in areas of social and economic deprivation within the Community
- * to advance the education of the Community about its environment, culture and/or history
- * to promote, operate and/or support other similar charitable projects for the benefit of the Community.

Development Coll (A company limited by guarantee)

Report of the directors (incorporating the trustees' report) for the year ended 30 April 2013

Activities during the year

The legal document which guides and restrains Development Coll's activities - its Memorandum of Association - allows for a remarkably broad scope of work. That scope was narrowed and given some focus by the charity's Growth Plan - conducted in 2011.

Achievements and performance

The financial year 2012-2013 was predominantly devoted to An Cridhe - the island's new community centre - and planning for the long-term sustainability of Development Coll and its facilities.

With the termination of HIE funding for 'Local Development Officer' posts, some changes were inevitable. Nonetheless, DC has managed this transition well and the long-term impact has been positive.

An Cridhe Community Centre and Coll Bunkhouse

With the completion of the building project, on budget and with only a slight delay, the focus shifted to the early stages of management. Following a number of very thorough reviews and adjustments, the facilities are now fully operational, with an excellent staff team, a very active management committee and a board of directors who actively engage with and understand the operational issues.

From May 2012, the An Cridhe Management Committee (MC) was established. Working closely with paid staff, the MC is a sub-committee of DC whose role is to guide and monitor the day to day running of the facilities. The MC is a huge asset and has been closely involved in all decisions and processes, has raised funds for equipment and has actively managed events and activities. The well-managed buildings are proving to be a success both socially and financially.

July 2012 saw a very well-attended 3-day Opening Festival. The buildings were formally opened by Princess Anne, thanks to an invitation made by one of the directors. Sponsorship and local fundraising ensured that the event covered its costs and, more importantly, the event provided an unprecedented opportunity for show-casing and promoting both the new facilities and the Isle of Coll.

The success of the facilities so far is in no small part thanks to the Big Lottery who, from August 2012, provided a great deal of additional support, advice and funding. From September 2012, the employment of a consultant Business Adviser enabled the organisation to conduct a full review of the staffing structure, rewrite the operational budget and request a completely new funding plan for staffing for the first year of operations. The Business Adviser also helped with the recruitment of these three new posts, enabling them to be in post from January 2013 following a very thorough recruitment process. Additionally, she helped secure the services of a Business Coach who started work in January 2013.

These processes were conducted with the full participation of staff, directors and management committee, resulting in a more inclusive and engaged corporate style - the effects of which (combined with investments made elsewhere) should prove to be of lasting value

In October 2012, a full audit was conducted by ERDF. This proved to be an extremely time-consuming process. Fortunately, it was possible for the existing employees to help with the process.

Promotional activities continued seamlessly between EGF funding (which ended January 2013) and Lottery funding (from January 2013). The results of these efforts have been far-reaching and valuable. Websites and Facebook pages for Coll Bunkhouse and An Cridhe have raised An Cridhe's awareness and profile, while affiliations and collaborations with various organisations and other marketing have resulted in better-than-expected financial performance

Report of the directors (incorporating the trustees' report) for the year ended 30 April 2013

In March 2013, the building was awarded a My Space architectural award, resulting in some positive press coverage

Enterprise Growth Fund

From March 2012, the Enterprise Growth Fund (EGF) provided funding for a member of staff (the Business Development Officer - 'BDO'), as well as other resources, with the aim of establishing DC as a self-sustaining local charity. The Business Development Officer played a crucial role in early promotion of the Coll Bunkhouse and An Cridhe, thus securing a vital source of income. However, other income-generating proposals (e.g. a small wind turbine and a moorings project) were rejected following community consultation. A successful first-stage application to the Coastal Communities Fund was not pursued due to a lack of community engagement. The long-term financial sustainability of the charity therefore continues to demand serious thought.

Internally, the board of directors has gone from strength to strength. EGF funds have paid for consultants to provide training and advice on finance, governance, health and safety and employment law. The management of the charity is increasingly inclusive and has sought to engage at every level. As a result, the directors understand their roles and responsibilities better and are confident to take active roles in the management and future planning of the charity. There is still work to do in these areas to ensure the information is passed on to future generations of directors but the impact so far has been profound and valuable

Other projects - community housing

In March 2012 (last financial year) a housing survey on Coll by Rural Housing Scotland (RHS) established that 8 households required homes. Following the end of her employment as LDO, Frances Macintyre continued to stay in touch with RHS in a voluntary capacity. RHS have been working on various proposals to improve housing in the islands and have created a salaried position based on the Isle of Mull, with the intention of making some progress in this area. Although DC has had minimal involvement in this project this year, the continued connection between DC and RHS has been positive - even if only to maintain awareness both on Coll and within RHS.

Other projects - mobile phones

In February 2013, the Scottish Government identified Coll as a location for a pilot project using satellite equipment already in use in various parts of the developing world. They held a public meeting at An Cridhe to consult the community. DC agreed to act as a facilitator and to assist where necessary. For various practical reasons, little further progress was made by the Scottish Government.

Other projects - tourism

Development Coll worked as part of the local tourism group to look for ways of promoting the island collectively. The aim was to take part in joint advertising and to raise awareness of the island and its various attributes and tourist facilities. Some positive progress was made in this regard. DC also contributed to the Dark Skies Group, both financially to cover the cost of consultancy fees, and through staff involvement in the group.

DC staff organised a visit in September 2012 from Dave Chalton of Dark-Sky Scotland and provided the free use of An Cridhe for several community events, including a rocket-making workshop for the school, stargazing training for local businesses, and talks for the general public using an indoor planetarium. DC will continue to work with the local Dark Skies Group to support events and help promote the island as a destination for stargazing.

Report of the directors (incorporating the trustees' report) for the year ended 30 April 2013

Risk Policy

The directors continually re-assess the major risks to which the charity is exposed, and in particular those related to the construction project, as well as the general operations and finances of the Trust, and are working to ensure that systems are in place to mitigate any exposure to these risks.

Reserves Policy

The policy of the Trust is to aim to retain sufficient reserves to meet the cost of any regular commitments, as well as a contingency to enable it to continue to develop further projects.

Signposting' service to broad Coll community

Using our database of members, associate members, junior members and interested people, Development Coll is able to disseminate information widely. In addition to newsletters and emails relating specifically to DC activities, this signposting service relates to the following (not exhaustive) list of activities: official visits from Council employees, councillors and other relevant people; visits from professionals and charities; opportunities for training and education; events - musical, comedy, magic and theatre etc.; commercial events; and it also provides a conduit for important local development information - e.g. the proposed fish farm or Argyll Array who contribute to the quarterly newsletter.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors (who are also trustees of Development Coll under charity law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Fiona McGlynn of R A Clement Associates was appointed as independent examiner and the directors recommend that Fiona McGlynn remains in office until further notice.

Independent examiner's report to the directors on the unaudited financial statements of Development Coll.

I report on the accounts for the year ended 30 April 2013 set out on pages 2 to 18.

This report is made to the charity's Trustees, who are also directors of the company, in accordance with the terms of my engagement. My work has been undertaken to enable me to prepare the financial statements on behalf of the charity's Trustees and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's Trustees, as a body, for my work or this report.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (the Act) and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act, and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Regulations
  - to prepare accounts which agree with the accounting records, comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Regulationshave not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to financial statements
for the year ended 30 April 2013

1. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies are summarised below. The accounting policies have been applied consistently throughout the year and the preceding year.

1.1. Basis of accounting

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008), the Statement of Recommended Practice 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities' issued in March 2005 (SORP 2005) and the Companies Act 2006.

1.2. Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

Voluntary income is received by way of grants, donations and gifts and is included in full in the statement of financial activities when receivable. Grants where entitlement is not conditional on the delivery of a specific performance by the charity, are recognised when the charity becomes unconditionally entitled to the grant.

Donated services and facilities are included at the value to the charity where this can be quantified. The value of services provided by volunteers has not been included.

Gifts donated for resale are included as incoming resources within activities for generating funds when they are sold.

Grants, including grants for the purchase of fixed assets, are recognised in full in the statement of financial activities in the year in which they are receivable.

Income from investments is included in the year in which it is receivable.

1.3. Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes any VAT which cannot be fully recovered, and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates.

Costs of generating funds comprise the costs associated with attracting voluntary income and the costs of trading for fundraising purposes.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

Fundraising costs are those incurred in seeking voluntary contributions and do not include the costs of disseminating information in support of the charitable activities.

A separate fund is shown for amounts received specifically to cover the loan interest and charge on the cashflow loan from SIS- the deficit on the fund has been met from the fundraising account.

Sports Facility
